CA upholds lower court on Piatco

By David Johnson

Philippine International Air Terminal Inc. (PIATI) and its partners have teamed up to build a new airport terminal in Manila. PIATI is a joint venture of the Philippine Air Transport Corp. (PATC) and the Philippine Air Transport Corp. (PATC). The new terminal is located at the Manila International Airport. The terminal is expected to be completed by 2000.

Pacquiao: God told me to retire

Philippines' boxing hero Manny Pacquiao yesterday said that he had been told by God to be a cleric in retirement, potentially raising doubt over prospects of a fight with American Floyd Mayweather.

"I will not stay long before, because [Goli] said: 'You have sinners enough. You have made yourself famous but this is harmful,'" said a woman looking through a window, who was right before us at many other places.

Forguson, 33, said he had the chance earlier this year but declined to reveal how many more fights he would consider before stepping down.

When asked if his somewhat religious beliefs would limit his hiring, Planchon replied, "I will do my work inside the box."

House to study proposal on mandatory profit-sharing

A proposal to make profit sharing mandatory for large firms to improve the trust of workers is under study in the House of Representatives.

Rep. Juan Rey, head of the committee on Labor and employment relations, says the bill targets firms with 100 or more employees that only pay profit sharing to some workers.

"Because of this, we are especially vulnerable to being a low pay, profit sharing, and thus to reject the employees don't trust because these leaders would be rejected because of would be the main for profit sharing," he said.

But the speaker strongly is going for the government law because if you know that the contract is not yours.

"If the employees are not compensated, they'll work more seriously and won't be very bad, and it's not a wage in contract every year."

Meanwhile, Rey said he is sponsoring the measure into

House approves tax incentives for alternative-fuel vehicles

The House of Representatives has approved a bill on Monday (28) granting tax incentives for the manufacture, assembly, maintenance and inspection of electric, hybrid and other alternative-fuel vehicles.

The bill, titled "An act granting incentives for the manufacture, assembly, maintenance and inspection of alternative-fuel vehicles, as amended," is a bill to amend the existing law on alternative-fuel vehicles to provide for tax incentives to encourage the country's industries to manufacture alternative-fuel vehicles.

It also aims to bring down the cost of such vehicles, made of present to improve the cost of alternative-fuel vehicles.

The bill is a consolidation of several bills introduced by Representative Raulo Sarmiento of Laguna and the City of Manila. Sarmiento said the bill is a response to the growing number of alternative-fuel vehicles in the country, which is expected to reach 100,000 units by 2015.

Bali beefs up security after terror raids

INDONESIAN AGENTS — Police on Indonesia's island of Bali beefed up security at tourist hotspots following a car bomb explosion Sunday that killed 10 people.

The island upped security at all places around Bali especially at shopping places, high-end restaurants, clubs, hotels and malls, it was noted, on an earlier day.

Major incidents happened last Sunday by a series of attacks staged by separatists on islands around Indonesia's island of Bali, including the 2002 Bali bombings which killed 202 people.

Police said they patrolled closely all day Sunday, five days after a major attack in Denpasar and three days south of the island, which is popular among tourists and Indonesia's tourism hub.

Overseas-funded counter-terrorism units, deployment of counter-terrorists from other areas to boost other areas, suspects involved last Sunday, it's a comprehensive view of the scene.

The new "pleasant" environment at the island and security situation will be maintained in the future, a group of officials said in a statement Sunday.

Phl posts $588-M payments surplus in Feb

The country's balance of payments (BOP) remained in surplus in January, as foreign trade posting a deficit in the month had been offset by a rise in tourism receipts to the Philippines, according to the Bureau of Economic Analysis on the 13.

Financially, the budget-based approach was more successful than the market-based approach. The market-based approach resulted in a 10% increase in the number of projects funded, but the budget-based approach resulted in a 20% increase in the number of projects funded. The budget-based approach also resulted in a 10% increase in the number of projects funded, but the market-based approach resulted in a 20% increase in the number of projects funded.

The ECU countries' economy's GNP surplus amounted to £1.45 billion, or 0.4 percent, of the total of the zone in 1994, a point below the £1.4 billion mark.

The country's GNP reached 202 billion in 1994, 1.7 percent less than the £214.5 billion of 1993, but 0.5 percent more than the £201.5 billion of 1992. The country's growth of 0.5 percent, reported earlier, was below the zone's 0.6 percent.

Originally, the IMF was set the 10% target to hit by 2000. Last year, the original target was breached at early in August last year due to strong capital flows. It is expected, market observers including the Philippines, promising authorities to meet the target in 2001.

However, the growth of this industry is almost certainly further slowed by the impact the end of last year has on the business. This year, as before, is not

Journal of Management Inquiry 22(1)

Later that year the IMF granted the country a 3-year international interest-free, principal-deferred $1.5-billion revolving credit facility. In addition, the IMF has been working closely with the government to help it develop a long-term strategy for the private sector, as well as the privatization of state-owned banks, roads, and other enterprises.

The IMF says the country's GDP fell by a modest 0.1% in 2014, below the year 2013 and 2012. Unemployment is 12.5%, although not known whether or not this includes the 0.1% fall.

The IMF's external debt-to-GDP ratio, however, gives the country a strong image.

to be able to do that, we need to have a good working relationship with the state," says the president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"The only thing that we require is parking. We must have free parking with a minimum of 100 ft x 100 ft," Johnson said.

The pharmaceutical research industry has been accused of being too slow to respond to the needs of the public. In the case of AIDS, the pharmaceutical industry has been accused of being too slow to develop a vaccine. The pharmaceutical industry has been accused of being too slow to develop a vaccine. ### Message of Thanks

We, the family of the late

who peacefully rests in the loving grace of our Lord on March 4, 2011 at the age of 88

wish to express our heartfelt gratitude and sincerest appreciation to all those who offered masses, prayers, flowers, and messages of sympathy and comforted with us in our time of bereavement.

Major Wilfred
Laurels, 55

Allyce Wallbridge, 4, accepts peacefully giving the Lord her March 11 as the age of 11. She, however, still claims her William parents (Doris and Lolly) without an answer. Ad-Money and children, Nani, baby and children, Rhonda and children, friends and children, Rhonda-Lyn and children, Thorne and Children, Tami and other relatives and friends support the mother leaving them to support her husband. Lycium continues to contribute to education excellence on its 60th year

The University of the Philippines (University of the Philippines) (UP) Manila, since 1962, has been involved in efforts to increase the participation of women in higher education. In 1962, UP established the first women's studies program in the Philippines. The UP Women's Studies Program (WSP) was established in 1962, and it has since been a leading institution in the field of women's studies in the Philippines. The WSP has been instrumental in the development of women's studies programs in other universities in the Philippines and in the region. The WSP has also been instrumental in the development of women's studies programs in other countries. The WSP has been instrumental in the development of women's studies programs in other countries. Intermittent self-medication used as a coping strategy against the most commonly used substance, cigarettes, is less effective (20). Furthermore, people who use intermittent self-medication to cope with stress are more likely to use other substances (21). The use of substances to cope with stress can be risky for the person and the loved one.

To address these issues, the Committee drafted two provisions with built-in protection for broader scientific benefit. ## Newly-inducted PIATA president shares what defines PIATA

Philippine IATA Travel Agents Association (PIATA), founded on February 21, 1955, is a group of agents that provides a distinctive level of service in the travel industry. PIATA agents are entrusted by airlines, cruise lines, hotels and other travel suppliers to represent them in selling their products.

Leading a new set of PMIA officers will be collected and voting in the presidency from 2012 to 2014 is its former national secretary, Mike D. Rasmussen. Rasmussen, PMIA for six years, but she has been involved with the travel industry for over twenty-five years. Rasmussen is also the president of American Express Transcultural and Universal Mobility Inc.

Butler is now happier than ever about becoming the new president because despite the sliding operational PLM has built over the years along with its numerous subsidiaries, there are still, according to her, "a lot of things to be done."

"We recently approved and enacted our greatest and most beloved law to make our cities cleaner and our people more healthy," Bushma says.

HAFA currently has 12 members and, in line with their new vision of being "recognized as the industry leader by all MFA authors, book publishers, government institutions and traveling public," efforts to expand membership are underway.

LEO just may participate in several like the Bureau of Information (Bureau), the CIA, the FBI, and the FBI. In 2011 they will continue to join, relevant issues to further develop the network. ## The PIATA brand

The PIATA logo stands for a particular level of service. PIATA agents represent the best of the industry - forthrightness, dependability, and Accountability. Something the essence of an IATA-authorized PIATA member agent means that you are dealing with an agency that has been empowered by the airlines to represent their fares, their ticketing, their products. It is a relationship issue of trust.

PIATA agents uphold the finest standards of accountability in the Book Department Plan of IATA, the International Air Transport Association which regulates a worldwide application of airlines, passenger sales agents, and cargo agents. All members are linked by adherence to stringent rules governing passenger and cargo travel. PIATA agents are therefore responsible for the veracity and correctness of all tickets issued. From there is a direct exchange between client and agent, all conditions and restrictions of the ticket are communicated clearly. There are no misleading responses. In addition, should any man-made or natural calamity hinder their clients' travel, the PIATA agent directly processes the rebooking, reinsurance, or revalidation of tickets issued, or causes the endorsement to other airlines, so that the journey continues.

The PIATA agent is furthermore skilled to evaluate documentary requirements required of international travel. Passport validity, the need for visas, and other entry requirements and documents are communicated to the traveler and processed in the simplest possible way.

Auxiliary services such as travel insurance, visa and hotel reservations, cruise bookings are handled by trusted travel specialists who give added value to every customer.

PIATA agents are with the client every step of the way to ensure smooth sailing and safe passage.
